Who is Allied?

A family-owned and operated business that has been serving industries throughout Southern California since 1970. Today, Allied Micro-Imaging has established itself as a leading information management and retrieval company with a track record of success. The AMI team continues to offer clients the leading technology of an industry in the midst of exponential growth, offering superior products and services. Why Allied? While we're not the only company offering document conversion services, we think if you do your homework, you'll find that we're the best. For one thing, we've been around longer than the competition. With over 40 years in the industry, we've been at the forefront of the technological changes that continue to revolutionize information management services. As a recognized leader in the field, Allied Micro-Imaging has maintained a reputation for impeccable quality control and responsive customer service that is second to none.

Just ask our customers, we'll gladly give you a list of them. Then call us and let us put some of your sample documents on a CD so you can see for yourself how it works. Our guaranteed imaging service is positively changing the way companies like yours do business. Permanently.
